

CV

Reiner Nagel

Chair Federal Foundation of Baukultur
Architect and urban planner

© Till Budde for the Federal Foundation of Baukultur

Chair of the Federal Foundation of Baukultur, architect and urban planner. Previously the department head for urban development and public space planning in the Senate Department for Urban Development in Berlin (from 2005). Since 1986, Reiner Nagel has worked for the City of Hamburg in various capacities at the borough and senate level, most recently beginning in 1998 as the managing director of Hafencity Hamburg GmbH. He is a lecturer in urban design at TU Berlin, a member of the German Academy for Urban and Regional Planning (DASL), and an associate member of the Association of German Architects (BDA).

Reiner Nagel
Bundesstiftung Baukultur
Chair
Schiffbauergasse 3
14467 Potsdam

Tel.: 0331-201259-0
Fax: 0331-201259-50
Mail: mail@bundesstiftung-baukultur.de

CV

Reiner Nagel

Chair Federal Foundation of Baukultur
Architect and urban planner

© Till Budde for the Federal Foundation of Baukultur

- | | |
|------|---|
| 1978 | Studies of architecture in Hanover, Diploma
- Employment in planning firms
- Worked on various publications |
| 1985 | Degree as qualified engineer (Dipl.-Ing.) |
| 1986 | Traineeship in urban development for the City of Hamburg
- Civil service examination in urban planning
(second state examination) |
| 1988 | Officer for urban development in Hamburg-Wandsbek
- Programming
- Betterment of large-scale housing estates
- Housing projects
- Projects for internal densification |
| 1991 | Consultant to Prof. E. Kossak, chief planning director for the City of Hamburg
- Municipal building and construction projects
- Fleetachse development
- Hafenrand and HafenCity
- Immediate action programme for housing construction
- Urban development concept
- Land use plan / landscape programme
- Implementation of building forums
- Expert juror in various architectural competitions |

- 1994 Officer for urban development, Senate Chancellery of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg.
Responsible for:
- Urban development, urban and landscape planning, urban renewal
- Architecture / infrastructure development / housing construction projects
- Garden and green space planning
- Executive management of the Senate Commission on Urban Development, Economy, Environment and Transport
- 1998 HafenCity Hamburg GmbH (HCH); member of the executive board
Coordination of the urban planning of HafenCity
- Development management and control
- Master planning of HafenCity
- Project development
- Direction of infrastructure and open space planning
- Marketing and public relations
- 1999 Member of the German Academy for Urban and Regional Spatial Planning
- 2000-2005 Member of the board of the Hamburg Architectural Association
- 2005 Berlin Senate Department for Urban Development, department head for urban development and public space planning
Assignments and projects included:
- Urban development concepts 2020 / 2030
- Master planning for Heidestraße – Europacity
- Master plan for South-East axis / Gateway BER
- City West
- Subsequent use of Tegel Airport
- Framework strategy for social urban development
- Demographic concept
- Urban Development Plan (UDP) Climate
- UDP Business and Industry
- UDP Centres / 3
- UDP Housing
- Centres initiative "In the Middle!"
- Cityscape strategy
- IGA 2017

since 2009	Lecturer of Urban Design: "Mastering the City" at the Technische Universität Berlin
2011	Associate member of the Association of German Architects
2013	Curatorship National Urban Development Policy
2013	Since May 1 st Chair of the Federal Foundation of Baukultur
2016	ULI Leadership Award 2016, category "Administration" - Various lectures, some abroad - Competition juror - Member of the supervisory board and advisory committee - Articles in professional journals